7th ANNUAL COMMUNITY DAY & HOUSING FAIR
CELEBRATES STRONG SENSE OF COMMUNITY IN HERNDON
Event Kicks Off Town-Wide Neighborhood Celebration Month

Herndon, VA (April 16, 2007) – An eclectic blend of performers, children's and nature programs, foods to satisfy all tastes and 500-plus attendees all come together at the 7th annual Community Day and Housing Fair, to be held on Saturday, May 5 from noon until 4pm at the Herndon Neighborhood Resource Center (NRC), located at 1086 Elden Street in the Dulles Park Shopping Center.

The event, a celebration of the strong sense of community evident in the Town of Herndon, marks the beginning of Neighborhood Celebration Month in the Town. Throughout the month of May, neighborhoods will be hosting community block parties, yard sales and other events to bring people together in the spirit of community and neighborliness.

The Community Day celebration showcases the many programs and services available at the NRC, from educational programs and computer classes to community building activities, crime prevention training, community services programs and much more.

A full slate of performers is scheduled throughout the afternoon to include the H.K. Lee Tae Kwon Do Demonstration Team, vocalist Emma Bailey, the Boyle School of Irish Dance, Jow Ga Shaolin Institute Chinese Lion Dancers, the Herndon Middle School Step Team and the Mariachi Fiesta.

A housing fair will be held in conjunction with the festivities. Information for first time homebuyers, with an emphasis on the homebuying process and establishing credit as well as home maintenance and improvement, will be offered.

Activities for children throughout the day include face painting, games, a nature tent, a U.S. Army Adventure Van and much more.

For more information on the 7th annual Community Day & Housing Fair, contact the Herndon Neighborhood Resource Center at 703/435-6830.
